9:00am - 10:00am	Preserving An Employer's Right to Manage the Business in A Pro-Union Legal World While a labor union's ability to invoke illegal strikes and shut down business operations may be commonplace in many jurisdictions across the globe, such powers are not limitless. Employers can affirmatively take steps to preserve their managerial rights even when operating in pro-union legal environments. An impressive panel of experienced practitioners will discuss key points of the industrial relations laws of key jurisdictions in the Americas to help businesses establish effective corporate strategies to confront unionization efforts. This session will discuss: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strategies for unionization avoidance • Managing the employer-union relationship • Effective strategies to negotiate collective bargaining agreements • Legal and practical mechanisms to avoid and confront illegal strikes 	Moderator: Enrique Garcia Conde Shareholder, Littler Mexico Speakers: Ricardo Alonso Shareholder, Littler Venezuela Gustavo Gnecco Mendoza Partner, Littler Colombia Glauco Marques Partner, Adrogué, Marqués, Zabala & Asociados, Argentina Peter Susser Global Practice Leader, Littler

10:00am - 11:00am	Global Migration in the Age of Nationalism As political developments on both sides of the Atlantic – and elsewhere around the world – demonstrate, corporations face new challenges in the conduct of global business, not the least of which relate to expatriate assignments for key employees to jurisdictions that offer differing degrees of welcomeness, ease of movement and safety. Compliance with national immigration procedures in an era when forces encourage domestic employment is only one aspect of a complex picture that includes tax, payroll, employment and employee benefits laws and corporate policies, among many other factors. This session will explore both traditional and new challenges that arise from the political and cultural forces at work in various nations and discuss legal, HR and employment tax management considerations from several global vantage points.	Moderator: Monica Schiaffino Shareholder, Littler Mexico Speakers: Joaquin Acuña Solis Partner, Littler Central America Donald C. Dowling Shareholder, Littler U.S. Stephan Swinkels Shareholder, Littler

11:15am - 12:15pm	Outsourcing: A Global Onslaught on the Use of Independent Contractors Employers have become familiar with the challenges to asserted independent contractor arrangements under a range of workplace, tax, benefits and other laws. The same questions frequently arise globally, in most regions and many countries, with challenges created by the new “gig” or “sharing” economy, as well as more traditional contracting sectors. Key rulings and ongoing challenges will be explored in this session, where our presenters will provide guidance on developing a “best practices” approach to structuring contractor arrangements in the U.S. and globally.	Moderator: Rolando Santos Managing Shareholder, Littler Mexico Speakers: Ricardo Alonso Shareholder, Littler Venezuela Cesar Gonzales Hunt Shareholder, Littler Peru Renata Neeser Shareholder, Littler U.S./Brazil Jaime Solis Partner, Littler El Salvador
